A LITTLE ABOUT ME

I'm a sweet, well behaved, 1 year old fluffball of a Swiss shepherd. I'm the one you'd want to hang out with as I love to chill out and take a lot of naps. I do love to play but I'm perfectly content sitting by the window and looking out. I love joining my humans and brother on walks.

When my humans aren't around I can be found napping in my crate—not chewing walls.

ABOUT MY HUMANS

I think my humans are very nice but don't just take my word for it. They are responsible owners who have taken many classes on dog training (I was in some too!)

They always clean up after me, only go on holidays when me and my sis have our holidays booked at our favourite kennel. They keep professional cleaning equipment handy and are very tidy! One of the human also works from home and always has an eye on us.

As a bonus, they're willing to sign a pet proof agreement as they can count on me to keep an eye on things around the house. If we were to ever do an oopsies, they are happy pay up too.

THE GOODEST GIRL

At home you'll usually find me taking naps on the couch or by the windows where I can see the birds flying.
